LUKE 10:37

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Acting with mercy"

Reading I Deuteronomy 30:10-14 (God's command clear)

Reading II Colossians 1:15-20 (Christ's fullness and reconciliation)

Gospel Luke 10:25-37 (the good Samaritan)

Key Passage But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. (Luke 10:33-34)

Adult When have you gone out of your way to help a stranger in need?

Child Would you help a new student who needed help? Why or why not?

ALL Bulletin inserts please email:
bulletin@preciousbloodcatholicchurch.com

Deadline is 3:30pm on Monday before.

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. But did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor, who may be someone you don't know, someone that looks different than you or someone you don't like, without expecting anything in return.

ALTAR FLOWERS

The flowers this weekend are given in honor of Fatima Franco in celebration of her Quinceañera.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK: Our priests visit Culpeper Hospital twice a week on Tuesday and Friday. Please notify the rectory if you wish to have someone visited. Arrangements should also be made with the rectory for an Extra-ordinary Minister to bring Holy Communion to shut-ins on a regular basis. Emergency sick calls can be arranged at any time.

THIS WEEK AT PRECIOUS BLOOD

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION There is a need for adorers on Thursdays during the hours of 4:00-5:00 PM and 8:00-9:00 PM. There is also a need for substitute adorers who can fill in when needed. Please prayerfully consider if you can spare one hour of your time to spend with Jesus. St. Peter Julian Eymard puts it this way. "The object of Eucharistic adoration is the divine Person of Our Lord Jesus Christ present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. He is living there. He wants us to speak to Him, and He will speak to us. Anybody may speak to our Lord. Is He not there for everybody? Does He not tell us, 'Come ye all to Me'?" Please call Joanna at 829-2235 if you are able to help.

FAREWELL AND WELCOME RECEPTIONS Help us thank and send off Fr. Anselme after all Masses this weekend and meet and welcome Fr. Walsh and Fr. Moretti after all Masses next weekend. There will be a well-wishes box for cards at each reception.

MUSIC MINISTRY bids farewell and Godspeed to our Father Anselme! Our music ministry has been blessed by his love for music and song not only through his support and encouragement but through his own gifts for singing and harmonizing. Less known was his talent for playing the harmonica (an instrument originating in China and called the "Sheng", later developed in Europe in the 19th century and then popularized in the United States as a blues instrument in the 1930's & early 40's). Special favorites of Father Anselme were hymns from the Glory & Praise, as they reminded him of his days in the seminary where they helped form and express his love for God and His people. May God's blessings of grace, joy and music go with you, Father Anselme!

THANK YOU to our panel speakers for the Ladies Evening of Chocolate! We learned of the different ways our Lord has shown mercy in your lives through the blessing of more time and years to grow spiritually, through our love for one another, through being merciful instead of judgmental and through letting us get to the ends of our ropes so that we fully turn to Him and His better plans. What a blessing to gather as daughters-, sisters-, mothers- & grandmothers-in-Christ to strengthen, encourage and learn from one another! "Therefore, encourage one another and build one another up, as indeed you do." (1 Thess. 5:11)

GUYS' NIGHT OUT will be held on Wednesday, July 27th at 7:00 pm in the Parish Hall for guys of middle school age through adult. This is a practical opportunity and chance to gather as brothers-in-Christ and find out how our (your) God has shown mercy in the life of someone you see & worship with each week. For more information, call Kathy Semerling in the office at 825-8945.

HOLY SPIRIT INTERACTIVE (HSI) Next meeting will be Wednesday, July 13, at 7:00 pm at the new Brown Harris office (309 N. Main Street). Topic is "More Than Conquerors." In this talk, Aneel Aranha speaks about what it means to be a conqueror and how to be one. All are welcome.

SECOND COLLECTION This week, we are taking a collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. This collection is an opportunity to stand with the people of Africa and support pastoral projects that are so needed on this continent. Projects include support for migrants and communications efforts, building of new churches, and formation for priests and religious. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection. Thank you for supporting our Diocesan Mission of Bánica, Dominican Republic in last week's second collection.

FOOD CLOSET is in need of any canned fruit; any canned vegetable (no beans of any kind, please); and any canned soup.

CCD Registration forms are due; please register your children! Registration forms were mailed, but additional copies are available in the office. The CCD program is in need of aides for grades 2-7; adult aide for kindergarten; and teachers for grades 2, 3, and 7. Contact Pat Reed: 540-825-1339, pgr4b@yahoo.com

History of Precious Blood and Missionhurst

From 1867 to 1946 our parish was a mission of the Richmond Diocese. Priests traveled to Culpeper from Warrenton, Manassas and Charlottesville to celebrate Mass for the then-small congregation. Upon learning of Culpeper's needs for a permanent church, the Catholic Church Extension Society of Chicago generously contributed $10,000 towards the construction costs of a traditional red brick, steepled church. This church was dedicated in 1881. Mass was said once or twice a month. In 1946 Precious Blood was established as an independent parish and Fr. Maurice duCastillon, CICM was appointed as our first pastor.

In 1979, after 26 years, Fr. Maurice duCastillon retired and Fr. Leo Zonneveld, CICM became our second pastor. Starting in 1980 our parish began to build a new church, parish hall and classrooms, and new rectory.

In 2012, after 33 years, Fr. Leo Zonneveld retired and Fr. Anselme Malonda, CICM became our third beloved pastor.

What is Missionhurst and what makes it special? (In their own words)

Missionhurst-CICM is an exclusively Missionary Institute of religious priests and brothers. Its members are called to go beyond geographical and religious boundaries to share Jesus Christ with all those who do not know him. To be ready to leave our home country is a basic requirement in the life of each member of the Congregation. It is an option that constitutes an essential trait of our CICM identity and that profoundly marks our history. We read in our Constitutions:

“Like our founder, each of us has heard the call of Christ: “Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Gospel to all creation” (Mk. 16:15). We are sent to the nations to announce the Good News, wherever our missionary presence is most needed, especially where the Gospel is not known or lived. We leave our country to proclaim salvation as the great gift of God which liberates from everything that oppresses and divides people. Following Jesus, we address ourselves preferentially to the poor as the privileged recipients of the Kingdom of God.”

We love and respect the people to whom we are sent. We adopt a listening attitude and try to gain a knowledge and understanding of their socio-economic, political, cultural and religious realities. We foster attitudes which reflect these values, and cooperate with initiatives which promote them. Through dialogue, we mutually purify and strengthen our values and their expression. Wherever we work and whatever our specific tasks, we try to respond to situations of misery, injustice and oppression and to understand their causes. In our work for a new world we are always inspired by the Lord Jesus and his Gospel.

What can we learn from the example and teachings of Missionhurst?

CICM seeks to involve all baptized people to take up their own unique ministry in the building up of the Body of Christ by promoting local evangelization.

Missionhurst-CICM missionaries give witness to the universal love of God by living among the people, sharing in their privations, and participating in the day-to-day effort needed to achieve life-long spiritual and material changes.

“One heart and one soul”, they witness to the Father's will that all men and women be brothers and sisters in Christ. They are a sign of solidarity among the particular Churches in their universal mission.
