Today, Pentecost Sunday, is called by many the birthday of the Church. Not only does the Lord imbue His followers and Apostles with the Holy Spirit, but He sends them out into the world to accomplish and further His mission. There are strong connections to the concept of stewardship throughout the readings on this day, including the statement by St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." That is a prompt to us that we are gifted in different ways, but we are to be willing to use those gifts to assist and support the Church and others. How do we share the bounty that has been given us? Everything we have comes from God. This is the day to contemplate that and to respond to it.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Christ is risen! Truly, He is risen!

We have finally arrived to the culmination of the Easter season, the feast of Pentecost and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Let us pray for one another and for our parish and the whole Church, that we will all be more open to receiving the Holy Spirit in our lives this year.

I would like to announce that we have hired a new Principal for Epiphany Catholic School, Austin Poole. Mr. Poole comes to us with 22 years of experience being a Principal at other schools, most recently Our Lady of Good Counsel in Vienna, Virginia. Welcome, Mr. Poole! We look forward to an exciting new year beginning in August.

Also one of our teachers, Joshua Saibini, has been promoted to Assistant Principal at Epiphany Catholic School. Congratulations, Mr. Saibini, in your new position.

Congratulations to our 56 young people who were confirmed by Bishop Loverde on Friday, May 26th! I hope that your reception of this beautiful sacrament will help you practice your faith with greater dedication.

And thank you to anyone who has brought food by the rectory.

God bless,

Fr. Kevin

It was a remarkable turn of events. Peter, who had denied knowing Christ in a moment of fear, is transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Suddenly the fisherman who had stumbled along behind Jesus for three years is the head of the Apostles, preaching to everyone who will listen with a boldness that will characterize the rest of his life and ministry. How can such a transformation happen—for him and for us? Presented by Dr. Tim Gray.
